This We Believe, an In-depth Look at Bible Doctrine (ISBN: 978-1-42513-067-1), by Rev. Phillip D. Mosher, has a registered copyright for 2007. In order to retain rights over the work, it was decided to self-publish through Trafford (Available at: bookstore.trafford.com/Products/SKU-000167683/This-We-Believe.aspx). This book goes back to Rev. Mosher's original doctrinal statement of 1964 and continues to be an on-going project as he studies, learns, teaches, and writes. This book is available in PDF format on the "Publications" page.

Usually if a chapter has been updated for typo corrections, no changes are noted; but if a chapter or chart has been revised, adding new materials, the copyright notice on the pages has been upgraded.

The links on the "Publications" page of this site are pages from the book in PDF format. The first link is for these "Instructions" and gives instruction for downloading those files. The next is titled "Opening". This PDF file contains the Title Page, Table of Contents, and the first chapter, "Background Material". It is important that everyone read "Background Material" and the next chapter on Hermeneutics. It is the author's belief that no topic is more important than the science of Bible interpretation. How we interpret dictates what we believe and practice.

The other buttons on the "Publications" page are links to other chapters in the book. The button title is brief, and the section it will bring up can have other topics and even charts. "Israel" includes the Feasts. "Church" includes Baptist Distinctives and a chart of church history. "Last Things" includes charts on Daniel and Revelation.

The remainder of the book is an Appendix. To avoid cluttering the doctrinal section, chapters on issues were placed in the Appendix. The button titles beginning with "A" indicate chapters in the Appendix.

Working on the honor system, you are free to print one copy of the Book files for personal use. A donation of $15 to BBM-INC would be appreciated but is not required. BBM does have overhead expenses. Copies should not be made for distribution before donating $0.05 per page to BBM-Inc. Discounts will be made upon request where more than 10 copies are desired for distribution. At no time should one make copies and earn a profit there-from. This site and these studies are being offered to help the people of God and not for personal gain. See the "Contact" page of this site for information on making donations and/or payments for materials downloaded. If you desire to produce spiral bound books, BBM can email you a PDF file for the covers.

BBM will publish and mail within the USA a spiral bound edition of This We Believe for $35 each. This will be a full-color edition, and the $35 covers our costs without material profits.

The “Studies” page of this site will link one to various biblical materials in PDF format. There is no charge for these, though donations are appreciated. We do ask you to respect the copyright—no plagiarizing. Our hope is that through these works the believer is strengthened.

Usually the left margin is wider than the others and the pages are mirrored. This is done for printing on both the front and back of the pages. Thus, the left margin on odd pages is wide, and the margin on the right side of even pages is wide. This wider margin will facilitate for the punching of holes for use in a binder.
